
REELDANCE INAUGURAL ARTBUS COMPETITION CALL FOR APPLICATIONS FROM ARTISTS OR ART LOVERS!

WHAT IS ARTBUS?

- A FREE, ONE WAY, OVER NIGHT coach ride adventure tour to Sydney for the 6th REELDANCE INTERNATIONAL DANCE ON SCREEN FESTIVAL 2010 at CARRIAGEWORKS, Sydney's newest home for contemporary art.
- One bus will leave from BRISBANE and another will leave from MELBOURNE on the 12th May 2010.
- There will be regular pit stops including a midnight snack stop.
- There will be dance films selected by ReelDance's director Tracie Mitchell screened on the bus.
- The ARTBUS ride is a chance for you to meet, hang out and bond with other art makers from around Australia as you head towards the Festival.
- Both buses will arrive at CarriageWorks on the 13th May in time for the launch of the Festival and the opening night party.
- Once you arrive in Sydney, you will be a guest of the Festival.

WHAT WILL IT COST ME?

- Each ARTBUS participant will receive a Festival Pass at the discounted rate of $60 (usually valued at ($110) which entitles you to FORUMS, SCREENINGS (except the awards program) and the opening night PARTY.
- Sorry, unfortunately ReelDance cannot provide accommodation, meals or a return trip, however we are looking into cut-price options.

HOW CAN I BE INVOLVED? SIGN ME UP!
